Spring Has Sprung

Ah, spring is finally upon us. What's not to love about Spring, everything old is new again! It is a time of growth, renewal and new life. Now, let your imagination take you away to one of the most beautiful places on earth in spring, Paris.

We have all the French products you need to recreate the feeling of Paris right in your store or dining room. Start with croissants and breakfast pastries.

We have three terrific lines to choose from: Lecoq, French Gourmet and Bridor. A very Parisian way to start the day.

At midday you might be thinking about lunch and French street food. The first thing that comes to mind is a traditional French ham sandwich. For this you will need a delicious crusty baguette, for that we suggest Tribeca Oven's French baguette. Next up we need sweet creamy butter. Here we have a couple of options such as butter from President and Isigny Ste. Mere. And, lastly the ham. Sliced as thin as possible we suggest you try Raisin River Jambon. You could add cheese, but with ham this delicious we think it has all the flavor you could want. Grab a bottle of LeVillage lemonade and you are ready to go.

Now if a sweet treat is what you desire we have that covered too, from frozen petits fours and macaroons to all the French ingredients you need to make your own creations. Our French pastry ingredient selection includes chocolate from Valrhona, frozen fruit purees from CapFruit, glazes and mixes from PatisFrance, lady fingers from Can-treau and much more.

TULIP TREE CREAMERY

Just north of Indianapolis, exciting and innovative cheeses have flowered! Artisan maker Fons Smits established Tulip Tree Creamery in 2014, developing some extraordinary cheeses, using milk from the local family farm and naming them for wildflowers. Today we offer three of these beauties.

Trillium

A triple cream, mold ripened cheese inspired by the French classics – Camembert and Brie. It has a soft creamy texture, with rich smooth flavors and gentle lactic tones. It ages three to eight weeks, ripening gracefully from the outside to the center.

3448700 Trillium 6/8 oz

Foxglove

This double cream, washed rind cheese has a soft consistency and earthy, more pungent flavors created by cultures and local porter beer applied on the distinctive reddish-colored rind. If you have trouble choosing between a Taleggio and an Epoisses, this cheese may hit the spot. It ages from four to eight weeks.

Haymaids

This mild, semi-soft, natural rind cheese is inspired by cheeses traditionally hailing from the European Alpine region. Aged six to eight weeks, Haymaids has sweet tones, a subtle nutty flavor, and small eye development, similar to an Emmenthal or Jarlsberg cheese.

Bet You Can't Eat Just One.

Family owned since 1933, the business was started by R.C. Nueske who loaded up his truck and took to the road selling family made, applewood-smoked meats. Eight decades later, the Nueske family is still producing premium-quality smoked meats. Of course, many production improvements have been made. Nueske's plant is modern, well-equipped, employing custom-built smokehouses and state-of-the-art packaging equipment.

Created in Nueske's northeastern Wisconsin smokehouse, using the same traditional smoking methods as in their award winning applewood-smoked bacon comes this wonderfully good bratwurst.

Nueske's Bacon and genuine Wisconsin Cheddar cheese has been added to these famous Nueske's pork Bratwurst. Enhanced by select spices, slow smoking over glowing Applewood embers and natural casings, you really must try Nueske's Bacon Cheddar Bratwurst!

Remove from the freezer, defrost overnight and enjoy off the grill or right from the pan.
